Support guide – Power of Attorney

POA eezy guide

What is it?

- By granting a Power of Attorney, the grantor authorizes the broker to transact with the CBP in their name.
- Power of Attorney is valid indefinitely until it is revoked. An exception to this rule is partnerships - a POA issued by a partnership is valid for two years only, after which time it must be renewed.
- A POA can be revoked by a letter of revocation.

POA eezy guide

Before you begin

- A Power of Attorney must be issued in the name of the importer.
- Please ensure that the name, EIN/SSN, and address of the importer on the POA are the same as you used when registering with us.
- Importers that are not corporations must notarize the Power of Attorney.
- Under certain conditions, corporations may use corporate certification instead – see corporate certification page for further instructions.

Corporate Certification

- The corporation must be incorporated – an LLC is not a corporation.
- Corporate certification may only be executed by an officer other than the one executing the POA. A corporation with only one corporate officer cannot execute a corporate certification.
- Corporation must have a corporate seal.
- If the corporation does not satisfy the above requirements, it must use notarization instead.
